

The Washington, D.C. Chapter Music Education Grant Program

The Washington, D.C. Chapter Music Education Grant Program supports the advancement of music education in local schools and communities in Washington, D.C., Maryland, Virginia, and West Virginia. Eligibility extends to nonprofit 501(c)(3) organizations, public schools, or private schools that foster music education, mentor and/or musical training.

For an application or more information,

Please visit:

http://www.grammy.com/Recording_Academy/Chapter/Washington_DC/

or

Call The Recording Academy's
Washington D.C. Chapter
at 202.662.1341

Special thanks to XM Satellite Radio for their support of the 2008-2009 Music Education Grant Program Recipients!

THE RECORDING ACADEMY®
WASHINGTON, D.C. CHAPTER

Music Education Grant Program
Reception

Wednesday June 25, 2008
XM Satellite Radio
Washington, D.C.
6:00 p.m.

Supported in part by XM Satellite Radio

2008-2009
Music Education Grant Program Recipients

Program

Guitars Not Guns – Virginia

To support the translation and publishing of the Guitars Not Guns Music Program materials to the Spanish language in order to effectively serve and communicate with the Hispanic community in Northern Virginia.

Welcome

Shannon Emamali
Executive Director, Washington D.C. Chapter

Billy Zero
President, Washington D.C. Chapter

Latin American Montessori Bilingual Public Charter School

To enhance LAMB's music curricula with the addition of Tone Bars and Montessori Bells to teach the students pitch, transposition, and composition, as well as aiding an integrated comprehension of music both globally and in relation to other subjects.

Remarks

Chance Patterson
Vice President of Corporate Affairs, XM Satellite Radio

Stuart Hobson Campus of the Capitol Hill Cluster School

To support an after school program where students will research, write and direct a documentary musical about civil rights activist, Julius Hobson.

Performance

Thelonious Monk Institute of Jazz

To support bringing respected jazz musicians and educators into the Duke Ellington School for the Arts in Washington, D.C. to provide intensive jazz training for exceptionally gifted and motivated student musicians. This specialized performance-based program offers unique educational and performance opportunities to students primarily from low-income families.

Hip Hop Education, Inc.

2007-2008 Music Education Grant Program Recipient

Presentation

2008-2009 Music Education Grant Program Recipients

Young Audiences of Maryland, Inc.

To support the Career in the Arts Extended Day Program, which will provide more than 80 ninth graders with the opportunity to receive in-depth drumming instruction from various regions including West Africa.

Closing